

Internet advice and support for parents

Children always seem to know more about the internet than we do, but it is important to stay one step ahead and know how to keep your children safe.

Below is some fantastic advice from trusted organisations. Click on the coloured title to go to the website.

- Thinkuknow advice from the National Crime Agency on staying safe online
- Parent info guidance for families from Parentzone and the NCA
- Childnet help to set boundaries around online behaviour and technology use
- Internet Matters online safety checklists and how to set parental controls
- London Grid for Learning tips to keep primary aged children safe online
- Net-aware a guide to social networks, apps and games from the NSPCC
- Let's Talk About It has advice to keep children safe from online radicalisation
- UK Safer Internet Centre parental controls and safety tools on social networks

- Support for parents and carers to keep children safe from online harms, includes advice about such as online child sexual abuse, sexting, and cyberbullying

- Support to stay safe online includes security and privacy settings, blocking unsuitable content, and parental controls

If you have any concerns or would like to speak to someone please contact us by telephoning 020 8864 8544 or emailing help@northolthigh.org.uk